- (m) 'rules' means the rules made under this Act;
- (n) 'Schedule' means a Schedule annexed to this Act; and
- (o) 'settlement' means the agreement reached between the parties as a result of successful ADR, other than an award.

CHAPTER I CIVIL MATTERS

3. Reference to ADR.— (1) The Court, on the first date after appearance of all parties, shall refer every civil matter mentioned in the Schedule for ADR except where—

- (a) any of the parties to the dispute do not agree for ADR ;
- (b) the Court, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, is satisfied that there is no possibility of resolution of the dispute through ADR; or
- (c) an intricate question of law or fact is involved.

(2) Before referral to ADR, the Court may frame issues with the consent of the parties for facilitating the settlement of the dispute:

Provided that the Neutral may frame additional issues if so required during the course of ADR proceedings, with the consent of the parties.

(3) The Court, on application of any party to the dispute before it, with the consent of all parties, may refer any civil matter mentioned in the Schedule to ADR at any stage of the proceedings.

(4) This section shall not apply where ex parte proceedings are subsisting against the defendant or the respondent:

Provided that even if such proceedings are set aside, the case shall not be referred to ADR unless the Court, keeping in view the stage of the proceedings of the case or any agreement of the parties, decides otherwise.

4. Panel of Neutrals.— (1) The Government, after consultation with the High Court, shall notify in the official Gazette a panel of Neutrals for each district from amongst lawyers with at least seven years practising experience, retired Judges, retired civil servants, , ulema, jurists, technocrats and experts and such other persons of repute and integrity having such qualifications and experience as may be prescribed:

Provided that due representation shall be given to women, having prescribed qualifications and experience, in the panel of neutrals.

(2) The Government may arrange such training courses for Neutrals as may be prescribed.

(3) The Government may, in the like manner as provided in sub-section (1), amend the panel by adding or modifying any entry therein or omitting any entry therefrom.

(4) The Government may not remove a Neutral once he is seized of the matter referred to him unless both parties agree on his replacement.

5. Appointment of Neutrals.— While referring the matter for ADR, the Court shall appoint a Neutral or any other person agreed upon by the parties or refer the matter to an ADR Centre:

Provided that where the parties neither agree on a Neutral nor any other person, the Court shall appoint a Neutral in its discretion:

Provided further that where one or both of the parties to the dispute are women, the Neutral shall preferably be a woman.

6. Referral to ADR Centre.— The Court may, with the consent of the parties, refer the matter to an ADR Centre:

Provided that if the case is referred to an ADR Centre and one or both of the parties to the dispute are women, the case shall preferably be dealt with by a team including a woman.

7. Appearance of parties.— Upon referring the matter for ADR, the Court shall direct the parties to appear before the Neutral or ADR Centre, as the case may be, on the date and time fixed by the Court.

8. Reference to ADR before legal proceedings.— (1) If the parties agree on ADR before initiating the proceedings in the Court, they may make an application to the Court or an ADR Centre for resolution of their dispute through ADR.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub—section (1), the Court or ADR Centre, as the case may be, shall refer the matter to a Neutral or such other person as may be agreed upon by the parties.

(3) The provisions of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the proceedings under this section.

9. ADR proceedings.-- (1) The parties to the dispute shall take part in the ADR proceedings in person or through duly authorized representatives or attorneys.

(2) A Neutral appointed by the Court or an ADR Centre to whom the matter is referred for mediation, conciliation or other mode of ADR shall dispose of the matter within a period of thirty days:

Provided that the Court or the ADR Centre, as the case may be, may for sufficient cause extend this period for further fifteen days on a request made by the Neutral.

(3) If the matter is referred to an Arbitrator, he shall complete the process within sixty days:

Provided that the Court may for sufficient cause extend this period for further thirty days on a request made by the Arbitrator.

(4) The Court may, from time to time, give such directions as it deems fit regarding the conduct of the ADR and the same shall be binding on the parties and the Neutral.

(5) Any party who fails to attend or who requests an adjournment in any ADR proceedings or fails to comply with a deadline stipulated either by the Court or by the Neutral or does any other act which has the effect of delaying the ADR proceedings, shall be liable to pay costs to the other party as may be determined by the Neutral.

10. Settlement and award.— (1) If as a result of the mediation or conciliation a settlement is reached between the parties, the Neutral shall record such settlement, duly witnessed and signed by him and by the parties or their duly authorized representatives or attorneys and submit it to the Court which shall pronounce judgment and pass decree in terms of the settlement.

(2) If the settlement relates only to part of the dispute, the Court shall pass order in terms of such settlement, while adjudicating upon the remaining part.

(3) The Arbitrator on determination of the dispute shall render a written award, duly signed by him and by the parties or their duly authorized representatives or attorneys and submit it to the Court which shall pronounce judgment and pass decree in terms of the award.

(4) If the Neutral was appointed by an ADR Centre before initiation of legal proceedings, he shall submit the settlement or award, duly witnessed and signed by him and by the parties or their duly authorized representatives or attorneys, to the said Centre which shall submit the same to the Court and the Court shall pronounce judgment and pass decree in terms of the settlement or award.

(5) If the parties have themselves resorted to ADR and a settlement is reached between them, they may make application to the Court to make the same Rule of the Court. The Court, if satisfied that the matter has been voluntarily settled and the document recording the settlement has been duly witnessed and signed by the parties, shall pronounce judgment and pass decree in terms of the settlement.

11. Failure of ADR.— If the efforts of the Neutral fail to bring about a settlement between the parties or does not result in an award, the Neutral shall submit a report to the Court which shall proceed with the case from the stage it was referred for the ADR.

12. Failure of ADR Centre etc.— Where the parties have directly approached an ADR Centre or before initiating the proceedings in the Court and the ADR Centre has failed to bring about a settlement or result in an award, no legal proceedings shall be initiated thereafter by either party without intimating the Court about the failure of the ADR.

13. Execution of an order or a decree.— Where an order or a decree is passed by a Court following ADR, it shall be executed in the manner as prescribed and if no such manner is prescribed under this Act, it shall be executable in accordance with the procedure provided for in the relevant law.

CHAPTER—II COMPOUNDABLE OFFENCES

14. ADR in compoundable offences.— (1) Where the Court takes cognizance of a compoundable offence specified in section 345 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898) or under any other law for the time being in force, the Court may appoint a Neutral or such other person as may be agreed upon by the parties to facilitate compounding of the offence:

Provided that the Court shall not refer a case for compounding of an offence without consent of the parties.

(2) The Neutral appointed under sub-section (1) shall try to facilitate compounding of the offence within thirty days.

(3) If the offence is compounded, the neutral shall submit a report in this respect in the Court duly witnessed and signed by him and by the persons authorized to compound the offence under any law for time being in force and the Court shall pass order and the accused shall be discharged.

(4) If the efforts of the Neutral for compounding the offence fail, the Court shall proceed with the trial from the stage it was referred to the Neutral.

(5) If the parties have themselves resorted to ADR and the offence is compounded in terms of section 345 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898) or any other law for the time being in force, they may make application to the Court in terms thereof. If the Court is satisfied that the parties have voluntarily compounded the offence and the document recording their agreement has been duly witnessed and signed by them, the Court shall pass order accordingly and the accused shall be discharged.

(6) Section 345 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898) or any other law under which the offence is compoundable shall mutatis mutandis apply to the proceedings under this Chapter.

CHAPTER III MISCELLANEOUS

15. Costs and fees of ADR.— The costs and fees of ADR process shall be borne by the parties in such proportion as may be mutually agreed upon by them, failing which it shall be determined by the Court.

16. Utilization of services of an Evaluator.— The Court or the Neutral or ADR Centre may utilize the services of an Evaluator to determine any matter of financial or any other nature in respect of any proceedings before it or him. The Evaluator shall render such assistance as may be required by the Court or the Neutral or ADR Centre. After completion of the evaluation process, the Evaluator shall submit a report to the Court or the Neutral or ADR Centre, as the case may be. The parties shall pay costs of the evaluation and fee of the Evaluator as may be determined by the Court.

17. Penal costs.— Any person who willfully violates any provision of this Act, rules or any order of the Court with which he is required to comply shall be liable to penal costs which may extend to one hundred thousand rupees, in addition to any other costs or penalty to which he may be liable under the relevant law.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

There is a maxim of law that "justice delayed is justice denied". This maxim holds good both in civil and criminal cases. In every civilized society there have been constant efforts to evolve ways and means for speedy dispensation of justice.

2. There is huge backlog of cases in both subordinate and superior Courts of the country. It is, therefore, necessary to find simpler and faster alternates which can supplement the traditional legal system. As litigation is a very lengthy and expensive process there is a worldwide trend to adopt Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). Alternative Dispute Resolution methods such as conciliation, arbitration and mediation can be used effectively for settlement of disputes to overcome delays, provide inexpensive justice and reduce tremendous burden on Courts.
3. The Bill is designed to achieve the aforesaid object.
